Communities

Communities

Next Generation Community

You are between 18-40 years old and wish to further reflect on your role and legacy within your family business.

Key questions:

- How do I find my voice in the family?
- Should I join the family business, when?
- How can I become an effective leader?

Family Office Community

Co-Chairs

Susana Gallardo
Gallardo Family Group
Spain

Alex Scott
Applerigg
UK

+ Committee of members and directors

You are considering, are in the process of or have established family office.

Key questions can be found on both the family side

- education of the Next Gen,
- family cohesion,
- family compensation,
- philanthropy ...

and the business side

- wealth planning diversification,
- active investing,
- non-family talent,
- impact investing ...

Now Gen Community

Co-Chairs

Alexis Lombard

Switzerland

Vladimir Moshnyager
DSC
Switzerland

+ Committee of Now Gen Leaders

You are aged between 35-55 years old. You have full responsibility toward the business and the family, you are fully accountable but might not be fully empowered yet and have not full control. The previous generation is still around, and you might be busy raising your own NxGs or planning your own succession.

Key questions:

- How to drive the business forward?
- How to move away from my NxG Legacy and grow into a board member?
- How to nurture healthy family dynamics?

Entrepreneurs Community

Co-Chairs

Selin Yigitbasi-Ducker
Yasar Holding
Turkey

Oliver Laiho
Laiho Industries
Finland

You are about to launch or launched a new venture either outside or inside your family business. You might also be looking at investment opportunities.

Key questions:

- How to innovate?
- What are the future trends?
- How to find the right partner and the right investment opportunities?

Large Families Community

Co-Chairs

Adrian Fuchs
Haniel
Germany

Priscilla de Moustier
Wendel
France

You come from a large family / cousin consortium, with dozens or more family shareholders.

Key questions:

- How to insure the family cohesion?
- What should be our diversification strategy?
- How to move toward a fair, agile and effective governance?

Polaris Community

Chair

Alfonso Libano
Cobega
Spain

+ Committee of members
and Directors

You are ready to start or have begun a sustainability journey focused on maximising positive economic, environmental, and societal impact.

Key questions:

- How to measure our impact, transparently communicate about it and act on it?
- How to identify and deliver on the SDGs aligned with our business?
- How to drive sustainable innovation and development?
- How to reimagine business?
